

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Claims 1, 5, 7-9, 11-12, 35 have been amended. Claims 2-4, 6, 13-19, 30, 47 have been canceled. The amendments to the claims are based on material disclosed in the originally filed specification, claims, and drawings. Therefore, it is respectfully submitted that the amendments to the claims do not add new matter.

Arguments in support of the novelty of the claims in view of Poklukar (art of record)

Claim 1, as amended includes the following limitations:

A method of closing an end of a bag during its manufacture, the method including:
starting with an elongate tubular member having opposed ends, at least one end of which defines an open mouth, forming a folded portion comprising folding opposed portions of the tubular member to extend at least partially across the mouth;
positioning a panel to extend across the folded portion so that a main portion of the panel covers the folded portion and a remainder portion extends beyond the folded portion; and securing the main portion of the panel and the folded portion together thereby to form closure for the mouth;
forming a handle for the bag using the remainder portion of the panel; wherein the handle is integral with the closure.

(Claim, 1, underlining for emphasis)

Poklukar does not disclose a method of closing an end of a bag during its manufacture. Instead, Poklukar discloses a bag handle for mounting on a bag (see Title and Technical Field in Poklukar).

Poklukar does not disclose forming a closure for the mouth. The bag in Poklukar is already formed and Poklukar merely discloses attaching a handle to the bag. In other words with Poklukar, the bag to which the handle is attached already has a closure (see the drawings of Poklukar).

With Poklukar the handle is attached to the bag and is not integral with the closure.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully submitted that Poklukur does not disclose the emphasized limitations of independent claim 1.

Accordingly, the Examiner is respectfully requested to reconsider the rejection of claim 1 in view of Poklukur.

Claims 5, 7-12, and 35-39 include imitations similar in scope to the above-discussed imitations of claim 1. Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted but these claims are also not anticipated or rendered obvious by Poklukur or any of the other combinations of Poklukur proposed by the Examiner.
